

The Let's Go Pulse Check

A team psychometric that gives insight into how a team is collaborating, and points towards the conversations that can move things forwards.

An elegant and powerful psychometric. Rather than prescribing answers, it opens up meaningful conversations.

1. Question Scores

See average scores for 25 questions that relate to the five dynamics of a thriving collaborative group: Belief, Structure, Involvement, Progress, and Care.

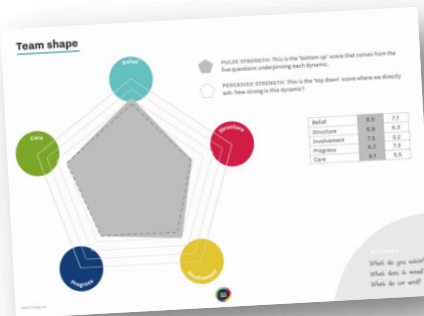

2. Question Detail

Easily see the spread of responses and the questions which had the highest deviation in answers across the team.

3. Team Shape

See at a high level how the team balances the five dynamics and any difference between perceived strength and what comes up from the 25 questions.

4. Attention Map

See what the team see as strengths/weaknesses, plotted against what they see as needing more/less attention.

5. Looking Forwards

See how confident the team is about delivering its goals, and what one thing each team member sees as most helpful to do this.
